From the President's Desk

Dear Friends:

In the course of our Pen-Pal relationship, you may have noticed that I tend to be very enthusiastic about things I'm really proud of. Don't ask about my grand babies if you're in a hurry, I do carry pictures. I'm proud of my husband, my boys and their wives and my grand babies. I'm proud of the Confederacy and my ancestors, cowboys and Indians alike. I'm proud of the flag, our country, one or two congressmen and lots of good friends. I'm also proud of ACGS and the work we do. I've admitted to being proud of all our publications and eager to do more. There seems to be a lot of interest in another book of Crossett memories and stories. Sawmill Interviews was so well received, I'm hoping we can collect enough material for a new book soon.

We're also working on new cemetery information. It's been slow going with few helpers and lots of bad weather. On Channel 7 news last week there was a segment on the town of Shiloh, AR that was completely covered by water when Greers Ferry Lake was built. One of the people interviewed talked about the town cemetery, now under 80 feet of water. A few years ago I wouldn't have noticed that, but it sure gets my attention now. With the drive to expand cities, build more houses, make new roads and establish lakes, we could lose a lot more cemeteries.

I have been able to place flowers on the graves of four grandparents, six great-grandparents, four great-great grandparents, two great-great-great grandparents and two great-great-great-great grandparents. It was a blessing for me to be able to do that and some of those graves I found only because a group of people published a cemetery book.

The ACGS Board has discussed having a genealogy column in our local paper. There was one several years ago that was popular. We have a lot of talent in our group, but this would be a very big commitment.

If you have an interest in helping with any of these projects or know of a source of information, feel free to join the fun. It's a lot of work but when you open that new book for the first time it's a great feeling. Genealogists have preserved a lot of history. They're in the business of keeping memories alive. I'm proud to be a part of that!

Sincerely,

Mary Spainhour
